

Y&S Design London Ltd Website Launched

Y&S Design London is about to make a significant impact on the interior and architectural design landscape in the UK. Their brand new website www.yands.co.uk launched, and offers a glimpse inside this dynamic, creative company.

Oxana Yuryeva, The Chief Designer of Y&S Design London provides the creative genius behind the business, working alongside British artisans to bring truly bespoke solutions.

Close attention to detail and ongoing collaboration with clients enable the designers to fully understand what is required before each project begins. The commercial and residential interiors design process involves consultation with the client's brand team, ensuring the correct message is conveyed via their public and work spaces.

The company's ethics are clear to see. Commitment to using only the best British craftspeople and materials guarantees quality and style, and this combined with a holistic approach to each project ensures superb results are achieved.

Creative flair and indisputable expertise combine to provide unique living and working spaces for home and business owners, offering comfort and practicality in equal measures.